Presentations/Discussions/Reports

- ✓ FRNCA & Riverside Rediscovered updates by Vince Taldone and Angela Huneault. CMEE has moved to Southampton Head Start bldg. SEPA making more of a presence in Riverside...meeting at RR Office twice a week.
- ✓ NYS School "Foundation Aid" Formula discussed and informed of the "Suburban Five" fighting back for fairer distribution of funds by Albany. Rally to be a Phillips Ave School.
- ✓ Flanders Northampton Volunteer Ambulance Corps: Third Party Billing...the billing seems to be working out. Many agencies audit the ambulance corps records.
- ✓ Update on blighted properties in Flanders: Awaiting transfer of authority to Town Attorney for Code Enforcement. Christine Scalera now employed by Town Attorney Office.
- ✓ Upcoming Sewer District: Plan is that there will be no charge for hook up for current residents.
- ✓ Recent Blood Drive: FFD & FRNCA collected 68 pints at the January Blood Drive.
- ✓ NY Rising Property 290 Long Neck Blvd: Two eligible, neighboring property owners were interested in this final piece of property with no amicable resolution in sight. FRNCA decided that the property would be transferred to the winner of a coin toss. Witness to the coin toss and verification of the winner was by Southampton Councilman Rick Martel. The new owner of 290 Long Neck Blvd is Tomasz Lepski.
